On the car line, a 15-acre place with full water right, five-room house, small barn, 2 springs, an orchard; different kinds of berries, excellent soil. A bargain.

Four acres, with small house, 5 minutes walk from the car. Beautifully situated. See us for price.

In Mill Creek, 5 acres, small orchard, house and barn. Excellent view of mountains and valley, and near car line. 5 acres in Cottonwood, 5-room brick house, barn, chicken coops. Young orchard; alfalia and grain land. Abundant shade trees. A spiendid place.

15 acres near the mouth of Cottonwood, partially on the bench. Spring water. The most ideal spot in the valley for a country home and at a price that makes it really a bargain.

From a farming standpoint no portion of Utah is more noted than the famous Bear River valley in Boxelder county, and justly so, when the wonderful productivity of the soil, as evidenced by marvelous crops, is considered. All of the grains, apples, alfalfa, sugar beets, peaches and polatoes are produced there in abundance. Bee culture and dairying are profitable pursuits. Its climate is unsurpassed. It is traversed by three rallroads. Its inhabitants live in peace and plenty. If you are thinking of buying a farm, you can do no better than investigate its resources. We would be pleased to show you over the country and to call to your attention, particularly, the following places:

A 30-acre apple orchard, 80 acres of alfalfa land, a quarter section of A-1 farming ground, and a 20-acre farm, all with water rights, situated near Tremonion and belonging to a resident of California, who will consider a fair offer on any of the tracts, and who will make liberal terms. This is your opportunity. So acres with a full water right, fisar Garland. Practically all in alfalfa. The land is fully tilled and has excellent of California, who will consider a fair offer on any of the tracts, and who will make liberal terms. This is your opportunity. So acres with a full water right, fisar Garland. Practically all in alfalfa. Inone of the best sm
